National Pupil Database

We are required by law to provide information about pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections such as the school census [if applicable].

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database (NPD), which is owned and managed by the Department and provides evidence on school performance to inform research. The law that allows this is the Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and exam boards.

The Department for Education may share information from the NPD with other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. Such organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use the data.

For more information, see the Department's webpage on how it collects and shares research data.

You can also contact the Department for Education with any further questions about the NPD.

Parents/carers, or pupils once aged 16 or over, can contact our data protection officer to request that we only pass the individual's name, address and date of birth to Devon County Council

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer Personal Data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

Parents and pupils' rights regarding Personal Data

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the School holds about them.

Parents/carers can make a request with respect to their child's data where the child is not considered mature enough to understand their rights over their own data (usually under the age of 13), or where the child has provided consent.

Parents also have the right to make a subject access request with respect to any Personal Data the School holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you or your child, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child

As an Academy, parents/carers do not have a legal right to access their child's educational record. Requests for this information will be dealt with on a case by case basis. Please put your request in writing to our Data Protection Officer as per the contact details at the end of this notice
