

St Mary's Catholic Primary in Axminster is looking for a Deputy Head to start in September 2018

CLOSING DATE 21st May 9am

This is an excellent opportunity for a senior teacher, who is a practising Catholic, with successful subject leadership skills and a track record of driving whole school initiatives, to join an enthusiastic and caring team of teachers and support staff at St Mary's. In addition to our committed staff, we have an enthusiastic body of 20+volunteers who support in the school on a regular basis who also make a tremendous difference to the education package we have to offer.

St Mary's is situated within the town but has excellent outdoor facilities which could be further exploited! It has a very good reputation within the town for its well-behaved children and our parents enthusiastically support the music and sport which is on offer and Our PTFA is strong, raising funds in innovative ways for extra resources as well as supporting visits.

You will be given full support to develop your leadership skills further at St Mary's. We have made some great strides recently to improve outcomes for the children in our care and are confident that we can continue to do so with the expertise of the staff we have in the school and sufficient leadership capacity.

Your contribution as an outstanding teacher and leader will accelerate this progress.

Come and see for yourself! Contact our admin team of Tammy and Sarah on 012973278 and make an appointment.

If you build in a little extra time, 15 minutes down the road you will find arguably the most beautiful coastal scenery in the country.

We look forward to meeting you and welcoming you to our happy and thriving school.

FULL recruitment brochure with Job description and Person Specification available by email from admin@stmarysaxminster.devon.sch.uk Closing date 21st May 2018 9am

Amanda Burt

Head teacher

